Installation Service

We will be having a special service on Friday, February 17, at 7:00 pm to install Rev. John C. Medendorp as our pastor. Pastor John has served us for the past year in an interim capacity and has accepted this church’s call to continue to serve NECRC as our next pastor. The service will be led by two mentors of Pastor John: Rev. Don Byker and Rev. Kathy Smith A light reception will be held after the service.

Morning Service

This morning we welcome Rev. Eric Sarwar. Pastor Eric is a missionary/church planter with Resonate Global Missions. He leads two California churches: Artesia City Indo-Pak Church and Fresno Punjabi Fellowship. He is also the director of the Tehilim School of Worship in Karachi, Pakistan, which brings together Christians, Muslims, and Jews to sing the psalms in traditional musical arrangements. He will be preaching on the "Manifestation and Mission of Messiah" from the story of Jesus' transfiguration in Luke 9:28-36.

Everyone is welcome for coffee and refreshments immediately following the service.

Evening Service

This evening Pastor John will lead us as we explore Lord's Day 33 of the Heidelberg Catechism. What does a life of gratitude for God's deliverance look like? The Catechism's answer: it looks like Christ Crucified, dying and rising. What does that mean? Join us for a time of song, discussion, prayer, and fellowship, as we grow deeper in the comfort of belonging to Jesus.
